- a Read the article once. Do you know any more words that are British English, not American English?

American and British English—

the same, but different

American and British people speak the same language—English, but with some small differences.

VOCABULARY

Some words are different in British English, for example, British people say postcode, not zip code; holiday, not vacation, and mobile phone, not cell phone. Some words have different meanings, for example in American English, a purse is a woman's bag. In British English, a purse is a small thing (like a wallet) where women have their money and credit cards.

SPELLING

Color, favor, and other words that end in -or in American English end with -our in British English, e.g., colour, favour. Center, theater, and other words that end in -ter in American English end with -tre in British English, e.g., centre, theatre.

GRAMMAR

British grammar is very similar to American grammar, but with some small differences, especially prepositions. For example, British people say See you on Friday, but Americans say See you Friday.

PRONUNCIATION

Americans are always loud.

Four foreigners who live in the US talk about the things people say about Americans...

Americans eat fast food every day. Pei from China

It's true that Americans eat a lot of fast food, but they don't eat fast food every day. I share an apartment with an American woman, and she cooks all the time. She only eats fast food on some days—with me!

The sun shines a lot in Southern California. Alberto from Mexico

The weather changes quickly in many places in the US, but not in Southern California. The sun shines a lot there. It doesn't shine every day, but be careful when it shines. It gets very hot! I always wear sunglasses when I go out.

Americans like animals. Naomi from Japan

I have a lot of friends here and many of them have a dog, a cat, or a bird. One American family that I know has a dog, a cat, and two birds. American people love animals!

State Parks, freeways, and other things I love about the US

Jenny Clark, an Australian mom and college student who lives in California, says the US isn't just OK—it's paradise. These are some of her reasons...

Coffee

American cups of coffee are very big! A small cup of coffee in the US is like a large cup of coffee in Australia. If you're in a hurry, you go to a drive-through and buy coffee from your car. It's so easy!

State Parks

California has 278 state parks, and they are beautiful. On the weekends, I bring my family to a state park in my area. We explore the forest, find small animals, and enjoy the tall redwood trees.

Malls

I love shopping, and in the US, the malls are very big. People walk around and shop for hours. US malls have many different stores, and the salespeople are friendly and help you find things.

Fall

I love the fall weather in the US. A good fall day in California is cool, but not too cold. I also love the trees. They change from green to yellow, red, and brown.

Freeways

I prefer the roads in the US. The freeways are very fast, and in California they have a lot of car lanes. It's really easy to drive from one place to another.

Theme Parks

Theme parks are very popular in the US, and we live near the Great America Theme Park.

My children like the rides and water slides. Sometimes the lines for the rides are long, but that's OK. We need rest!

Red Robin

Red Robin is a restaurant that has great hamburgers.

I don't eat meat, but I like the french fries and lemonade at Red Robin. I think the fried cheese sticks are fantastic, but sometimes they aren't on the menu. Maybe that's because they aren't very healthy!

6:30 a.m. I get up and make breakfast for the children. Then I have breakfast – a coffee and cereal – and I read the sports section of the paper.

7:15 a.m. I go to the market to buy fruit and vegetables for the restaurant.

12:00 p.m. I check the tables and have my third coffee.

1:30 p.m. Suddenly everyone arrives at the same time and the restaurant is full (on a good day). I start to shout instructions at the chefs and waiters. We make lunch for 85 people in about an hour and a half.

2:45 p.m. I come into the restaurant and talk to the customers and ask if they are happy with the food. I'm really hungry now.

5 (2:52) SONG Who Wants to Live Forever ♫

The secrets of a long life

In three areas of the world, a very high number of people live to be 100. Scientists want to know why. What do the three places have in common?

Ecuador

Vilcabamba, a small village in the Andes, is often called "the Valley of Long Life." What's its secret? Firstly, Vilcabamba is not very hot or very cold – the temperature is usually between 64 and 80 degrees Fahrenheit (18 and 27 degrees Celsius), and the air is very clean. Secondly, people work hard in the fields and exercise a lot. Thirdly, their diet is very healthy. They eat a lot of fruit and vegetables, and they hardly ever eat meat or fish. The water they drink, from the river in Vilcabamba, is very rich in minerals. They also have a good social life. In Vilcabamba people say, "The left leg and the right leg help you to be healthy, because they take you to your friends' homes."

Italy

In Ogliastra, a mountain region of Sardinia, one out of every 200 people lives to be 100, and they are usually very healthy, too. Most of the people in the villages work outside in their fields and with their animals. They have a healthy diet, with a lot of vegetables and not much meat or fish. They hardly ever take any medicine. "Life is hard," says Fortunato, who is a shepherd, "but I am never stressed. I never read the newspaper – because I can't read very well."

Japan

People in Okinawa in Japan do not have big meals. They usually just have vegetables and fish, and often eat soy. Okinawans are very active, and they often work until they are 80 or more. But they also relax every day – they see friends and they meditate. Ushi, from Okinawa, is 107. In the evening, she often dances with her daughter. "I want to have a boyfriend," she says. When journalists ask people from Okinawa "What is your secret?" they answer, "We are happy, we are always positive, and we are never in a hurry."

WHAT TO DO IN NEW YORK CITY...

Go ice skating at Bryant Park. Bryant Park is a beautiful park in midtown Manhattan, behind the New York Public Library on Sixth Avenue. In the winter, the area behind the library is made into an ice-skating rink. There is a skating school where you can take lessons, and there is a cafe where you can enjoy lunch or dinner after you skate. From October to January, Bryant Park's walking paths become an outdoor shopping center called the Holiday Shops at Bryant Park.

2 WHEN IT'S RAINING

Go to Fort Tryon Park and visit The Cloisters.

You can take a subway or a bus from midtown Manhattan and visit The Cloisters (part of the Metropolitan Museum of Art) in Fort Tryon Park in the north of Manhattan. The Cloisters is very popular with adults and children. Adults like this museum because it is full of interesting old art and architecture. Children like this museum because the building looks like a castle! If the sun comes out, walk outside and look at the amazing views of the George Washington Bridge or the New Jersey Palisades across the Hudson River.

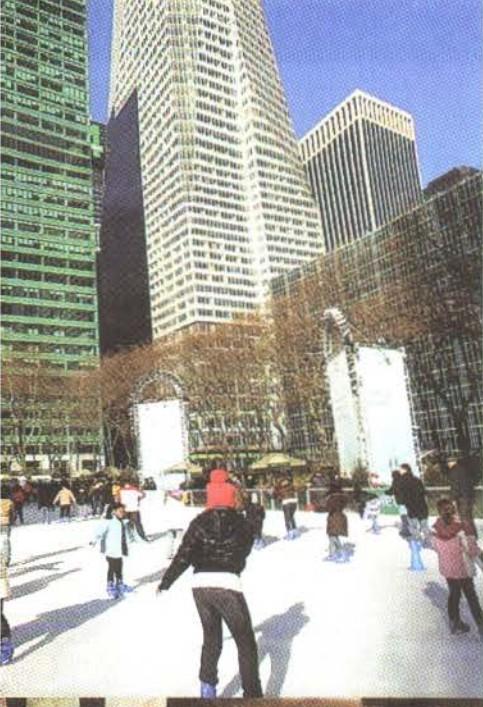

3 WHEN THE SUN IS SHINING

Go to the High Line, New York City's newest park.

On the west side of Manhattan between Gansevoort Street and West 34th Street, the High Line is a 1-mile public park on old train tracks. The High Line has flower gardens with chairs so you can sit and enjoy the sun. It has beautiful views of the Hudson River and interesting art. It's a perfect place for a picnic in the afternoon or a walk in the evening. It's a beautiful place, and you can't believe that you are in the middle of a busy city.

- a Read the first part of the text. What's special about the third Monday in January and the third Friday in June?

Favorite Times

The third Monday in January is the most depressing day of the year, says psychologist Dr. Cliff Arnall, who calls it Blue Monday. Why? Because it's winter, the weather is usually gray and cold, the days are dark, and Monday is the first day of the working week. People are also often short of money after the holidays, and some people feel bad after breaking their New Year resolutions. And the happiest day of the year? "The third Friday in June," says Dr. Arnall. And it's easy to see why – it's summer, it's warm outside, the evenings are light, and the weekend starts now!

We asked our readers about the days and times during the year that make them feel good.

- 1 What's your favorite time of day? Why?

5 READING

- a Do you play a musical instrument? What? Do you enjoy playing it?
- b Read the article. How is music changing the lives of young people in Venezuela?

Music is changing their lives

Inside the concert hall a top orchestra is playing brilliantly. Their young conductor, Gustavo Dudamel, is one of the best in the world. But we are not in New York City, London, or Vienna. We are in Caracas, the capital of Venezuela. The orchestra is the Simón Bolívar Symphony Orchestra of Venezuela, and its conductor and young musicians come from the poorest families in the country. They are a product of El Sistema ("the system" in Spanish), a project started in 1975 to save poor children from crime and drug addiction through classical music.

Today, more than 270,000 young Venezuelans from the barrios (poor areas in Caracas) are learning to play instruments. They practice Beethoven and Brahms instead of learning to steal and shoot. Gisella, aged 11, says "I am learning the viola because I want to escape from the barrio. In Venezuela, now it's cooler to like Strauss than salsa." Edgar, 22, who plays in the orchestra, says "sometimes when we finish late, I stay in town – it's dangerous to go home at that time. But now, most of my friends are here. We are a family as well as an orchestra."

Dudamel is now also the Music Director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, one of the US's top orchestras. But he returns frequently to Caracas to conduct. "I miss my orchestra, but I will never leave them. They're family," he says.

Walla Walla, Washington –the friendly city

In 2011, a US newspaper had a competition for friendly towns in the US, and Walla Walla in Washington was the winner. Jason and Nikki Wynn went to the city for the competition, and they say it's a happy town with friendly people. Local people greet visitors with smiles, and if you get lost on Main Street after shopping, ask people for directions. They are happy to help you.

There's a lot to do in Walla Walla. For example, you can ride a bike around the city or, in the summer, go on a hot-air balloon ride. It's a great view! In the city, you can see an entertaining show at the Little Theater of Walla Walla and visit the Fort Walla Walla Museum. Why do we remember some nights in our lives?

Maggie from the US

- It was in February when I went to New York City.

- After our swim, we were tired and decided to go back, but I couldn't find my car keys! We went back to the beach and we looked everywhere, but it was too dark. In the end, I left the car at the beach and I went home in my friend's car! I got home really late, at 5:00 in the morning.

ENGLAND GOSFORTH HALL INN

Gosforth Hall is a small hotel in Cumbria in the north of England, built in 1658. People say the hotel has the ghost of a Catholic priest. He usually appears in Room 11. There is a secret tunnel that goes from behind the fireplace in the hotel lounge to Room 11. In 17th-century England, Catholic priests used the tunnel to hide from Protestants. The owner of the hotel, Rod Davies, says, "I didn't believe in ghosts before I came here, but strange things happen in the hotel. One guest woke up in the middle of the night and saw a tall man standing next to his bed. He checked out the next morning." Rod's wife says, "One night a lot of books fell off a shelf in the lounge. And sometimes when I am working, I feel that someone is watching me, but when I turn around, nobody is there."

SCOTLAND COMLONGON CASTLE

Comlongon is a 15th-century castle in a small village near Dumfries in southwest Scotland. The castle is haunted by the Green Lady, the ghost of Lady Marion Carruthers. Lady Marion was unhappy because she was married to a man she did not love, and in 1570 she jumped from the castle walls and killed herself. Many strange things happen in the hotel – doors open and close, and lights go on and off in empty rooms. An American couple once opened the door of their room and saw a young woman sitting on the bed. They left because they thought they were in the wrong room. In fact it was their room, but when they came back the room was empty.

The man who wrote

Arthur Conan Doyle was born in Edinburgh on May 22, 1859. He studied medicine at Edinburgh University, and as a student, he began writing short stories. He became a doctor in the south of England, but at first, he didn't have many patients. So in his free time, he began writing stories about a very smart detective, Sherlock Holmes. Conan Doyle based Holmes's personality on one of his university professors. Holmes, who lives at 221b Baker Street in London, is famous for solving difficult crimes and mysteries using his great intelligence. The Sherlock Holmes stories soon became very popular, but in 1893, Conan Doyle became tired of his detective, and decided to "kill" him. In The Final Problem, Sherlock Holmes and his enemy, Professor Moriarty, die when they fall off the Reichenbach Falls in Switzerland. But people were very unhappy to lose Sherlock Holmes, and there were letters in many newspapers asking for him to come back. Finally, in 1901, Conan Doyle brought him back in a new story, The Hound of the Baskervilles. He explained that Holmes did not die in the Reichenbach Falls, but miraculously survived. Conan Doyle died on July 7, 1930, but Sherlock Holmes continues to live both in the stories and in many movie versions. Recently, he was the inspiration for the character Dr. Gregory House in the TV series House.

Riding a bike on the most dangerous road in the world

High in the Andes, the North Yungas Road goes from La Paz, the highest capital city in the world, to Coroico in the Yungas region of Bolivia. The road is only about ten feet wide and the Coroico River lies 656 feet below. Bolivians call it "El Camino de la Muerte" (Death Road) because of the number of accidents, and in 1995 it was officially declared "the most dangerous road in the world."

"One mistake and you are dead."

Since a new road opened in 2006, there are fewer buses and trucks on the old road. But now thousands of mountain bikers come from all over the world to take the most exciting ride of their lives. They start at La Cumbre, 15,400 feet above sea level, and go down to 5,000 feet, traveling at nearly 50 miles an hour down the narrow road. During the rainy season, from December to March, only experienced bike riders can take part, but some die every year on the road. So, why do people do it?

Andrew Jagoo, 26, from Melbourne, said after finishing the ride, "If you go to London, you have to see London Bridge, and if you go to Sydney, you have to see the Opera House, and if you go to Bolivia, you have to do the most dangerous road." Marte Solberg, 22, from Norway said, "A lot of people said it was fun, but I was scared of falling down and dying. I was worried because I had no experience with mountain biking. One mistake and you are dead. I asked myself a thousand times, 'Why am I doing this?'"

 - 6 How did she feel before meeting a host?
- c Read the blog again and look at the highlighted verb phrases. With a partner, say what you think they mean.

Iria's CouchSurfing Blog

I had fun CouchSurfing through the US. Every state had something interesting to see. In my opinion, the best states were New Mexico and Rhode Island. I loved the desert and its pretty, brown colors in New Mexico. I also enjoyed the Spanish history there. In Rhode Island, I took a tour of some big, beautiful houses. North Dakota was my least favorite state because there wasn't much to do.

I never had a bad experience while CouchSurfing. However, I always had a hotel address in case things didn't work out. I met all kinds of people, and I slept in all kinds of places, from comfortable beds to old couches! I only had one problem—sometimes I arrived late at a host's house. Once it was because I forgot to change the time on my watch. Another time I got lost. Then one time I didn't have a cell phone, so I couldn't call my host and my host couldn't call me! Whenever that happened, I tried to stay calm. CouchSurfers and hosts are usually friendly and very understanding.

The best thing about CouchSurfing is seeing the world and meeting new people at the same time. I love that when I travel somewhere, I have "friends" to stay with. I'm always excited before meeting a host. And the worst thing about CouchSurfing? Sometimes the couch you sleep on can be very surprising. That's the real adventure!

PART 1

"Come in," said a voice. Jane Ross opened the door and went into a small room. There was a man sitting behind a table.

"Good afternoon," said Jane.

"I want to see Madame Yolanda, the fortune-teller."

"Madame Yolanda isn't here today," said the man.

"But don't worry. I'm going to tell you about your future. What questions do you want to ask?" Jane looked at the fortune-teller. She couldn't see him very well because the room was very dark.

PART 3

He turned over the second card.

"Hmm, a house. A new house. You're going to move, very soon, to another country."

"But my friend works here. He can't move to another country."

"Let's look at the next card," said the fortune-teller.

He turned over the third card.

"A heart. You're going to fall in love."

"With who?" asked Jane.

"Let me concentrate. I can see a tall man. He's very attractive."

"Oh, that's Jim," said Jane.

"Who's Jim? Your friend?"

"No. Jim's a man I met at a party last month. He's an actor, from New York. He says he's in love with me. It was his idea for me to come to Madame Yolanda."

"Well, the card says that you're going to fall in love with him."

"Are you sure?" asked Jane. "But what about my boyfriend?"

"Let's look at the fourth card," said the fortune-teller.

PART 5

The fortune-teller stood up. He turned on the light. At that moment, an old woman came in. "So, what happened?" she asked.

"It was perfect! She believed everything," said Jim. "I told you, I'm a very good actor. She was sure I was a fortune-teller!"

He gave the woman $100.

"That's Jane's $50 and another $50 from me. Thanks very much, Madame Yolanda. Bye."

Madame Yolanda took the money. The fifth card was still on the table, facedown. She turned it over. It was the plane. She looked at it for a minute and then she shouted:

"Wait, young man! Don't travel with that girl – her plane is going to..."

But the room was empty.

1 A survey showed that Americans _____.
a eat 15 percent more junk food than healthy food
b eat the same amount of junk food as healthy food
c eat too much junk food

2 Americans have unhealthy diets because _____.
a they eat cheap food
b they think healthy foods are expensive

3 Americans can make their diets better, if they _____.
a spend a lot of money
b cook more often at home
c never eat fast food

b Look at the highlighted words or phrases in the text and guess their meaning.

The unhealthy American diet

The US has a problem with obesity, and the government says we need to have healthier diets. However, American shoppers are continuing to fill their supermarket baskets with unhealthy food.

A survey showed that more than 30 percent of calories Americans eat comes from junk food—food high in salt, sugar, and fat. And nearly 15 percent of Americans eat a fast-food meal every day (e.g., a hamburger, French fries, and a soda).

Children have a problem, too. Scientists say that children born today can die before their parents because of obesity and unhealthy food choices by their families.

Why do Americans have unhealthy diets? There are many reasons, but money is the main one. Americans think that healthy foods are more expensive than packaged foods. They also think it takes a long time to cook a healthy meal.

So, how can Americans make their diets better? They can stop eating fast food and cook more often at home. They can bring healthy lunches to work or school, and they can have fruit for snacks during the day.

Kate in _____

The driving

I think people drive really dangerously, which surprised me because I thought they were careful drivers here. They don't drive fast, but people are always on the phone in the car, which you don't see much in my country nowadays.

The food

The food can be delicious, but I think people eat very unhealthily. In restaurants, they often add salt to their food. And they drink a lot of soda! The headquarters of the Coca-Cola company is based here, and they even have a Coca-Cola museum. Once I went to a coffee shop and asked for a double espresso, no milk and no sugar. I had to repeat my order three times because the waitress couldn't understand me. She said people here only ask for lattes and cappuccinos with a lot of sugar!

The people

In general, people are very friendly. The people I'm staying with, who live just outside the city, know all their neighbors really well. They often don't lock their doors, which surprised me because people say it's a dangerous city. They speak incredibly slowly, with a strong accent and sometimes I have a problem understanding them.

December
14

Mark in _____

The weather

It's December and it gets dark at about 3 p.m., which is depressing! There's a lot of snow right now, but all the buses and trains are running perfectly, not like in my country where everything stops when it snows!

The houses

All the houses are painted in pretty colors, like red, green, and blue. And many houses have a yellow and blue flag. Inside, the houses are decorated beautifully with a lot of flowers and modern wooden furniture.

The people

People are friendly and polite, but formal. They dress fashionably but casually, and of course, you see a lot of very blond women here. You also see a lot of men who are taking care of very young babies. Everybody speaks English really well, maybe because a lot of the TV is in English with subtitles.

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the text and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

- 1 It is more expensive to live in the US than in the UK.
- 2 It is less expensive to be sick in the UK.
- 3 Waiters are better in UK restaurants.
- 4 It's more difficult to make friends in the US.
- 5 Americans are more direct than the British.

- b Look at the highlighted words or phrases in the text and guess their meaning.

Amy Johnson is an English woman who lives and works in the US. We asked her to tell us about her first impressions of the US.

One of my first impressions was that the US is cheaper than the UK. I live in Ohio and the cost of living (rent, bills food, etc.) is lower than in Oxford, where I'm from in the UK. The only thing that's more expensive here is healthcare. You need to have health insurance, which can be very expensive. Of course in the UK, it's free to go to the doctor's or to the hospital.

Eating out is less expensive in the US as well and the service is better, but you can eat very well in England. There's a wide variety of food from all around the world (Chinese, Japanese, Italian, Turkish, etc.). And generally, I'd say British food is healthier than American food, and the portions are a lot smaller, too.

As for the people, I find Americans very positive and optimistic about the future compared to British people, who can be pessimistic. Also, when I'm in Ohio, I talk to everybody: salespeople, the person behind me in the supermarket line, the person sitting next to me in the restaurant. I can't do that in the UK – people are much more reserved. But, on the other hand, I think it's easier to make real friends in the UK than in the US.

I also think British people are not very good at telling you what they really think or (in a work situation) saying something negative about you. Americans just say things as they are!

My favorite day

Cristina,
a college student
from Mexico City

My favorite day of the week is Saturday because it's the first day of the weekend!

I get up very early during the week, so on Saturday it's nice to get up late, and I always stay in bed until about 10:30. Then I usually go shopping with a friend. In Mexico stores are sometimes closed on Sundays, so Saturday is the best day for shopping. We don't always buy anything, but we have fun just looking.

I often have lunch with my mother and my brother. It's great because my mom is a really good cook and she always makes things we like, and my brother and I have time to talk about our week. After lunch, I sometimes study from about 4:00 to 6:00, especially if I have exams.

In the evening, I usually go out with my friends. We often go to the movies, and then we have a pizza or tacos. I never go to bed before 1:00, or sometimes later.

Amelia It depends. On Mondays and Wednesdays I go to extra classes to prepare for college entrance exams, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays I have basketball practice.

Interviewer What do you do when you get home?

Amelia I just want to relax, but it's impossible. I have homework and exams, so I need to study! So I sit down at my desk and start working again. After dinner, I go back to my room and study until 11 o'clock, or sometimes later.

Interviewer What time do you go to bed?

Amelia About eleven thirty. I lie in bed and think about the next day and the classes I have. Luckily, it's Friday today! No school tomorrow!

Gary Awesome! That's great. Thank you.

Interviewer Do you have a problem with noisy neighbors, Rebecca?

Rebecca No, I don't, not at all. But sometimes my neighbors have problems with me! I live in an apartment building and the house rules here are really strict.

Interviewer What kind of house rules do you have?

Rebecca Well, for example, during the week you can't make noise between 12:30 and two o'clock because this is when young children are asleep and the same is true after ten o'clock at night. So, for example, after ten o'clock you can't listen to loud music without headphones, or play a musical instrument. I think it's because people in Switzerland get up early in the morning, so they go to bed very early.

Interviewer Can you watch TV after ten o'clock?

Rebecca Yes, you can, just not really loudly. So, I watch TV, but with the volume low and the windows closed so that's not a problem. But the problem is I can't use my bathroom, because the water makes a noise, and my bathroom is next to my neighbor's bedroom.

Interviewer So you can't take a shower or a bath?

Rebecca No, not after ten o'clock. This isn't true in all apartments in Switzerland, but in my apartment it is. Maybe because the apartments are small.

Interviewer What about on the weekend?

Rebecca On Saturday, the rules are the same. No noise after ten o'clock in the evening.

Interviewer What happens if you want to have a party?

Rebecca You can have a party, but the music can't be loud after ten.

Interviewer What happens if you make a lot of noise after ten?

Rebecca Well, the neighbors complain and if it's really loud, they can call the police.

Interviewer What about on Sunday?

Rebecca Sunday is a day of rest in Switzerland, so you can't make any noise in your apartment at all. For example, in my building you can't move furniture, or put a picture on the wall, or turn on the washing machine.

Interviewer What do you think of these rules?

Rebecca Well, I like the rules that control noise during the week and on Sunday. I think it's a good idea. But I think they need to be more flexible on Saturdays. I mean if a party is still a little loud after ten, I don't think you need to call the police.

Interviewer Does that really happen?

Rebecca Yes, it happened to me.

The best thing about the weather in New York City is that it's always changing. In the summer, it's usually hot and sometimes sunny and sometimes cloudy, with temperatures of about 85 degrees Fahrenheit. And of course, it sometimes rains.

In the winter, the temperature is usually between 30 degrees and 40 degrees. It can be windy and cold, but it doesn't snow often.

In the spring and in the fall the weather is very changeable – you can have all the four seasons in one day! It can be sunny or foggy in the morning, cloudy at lunchtime, raining in the afternoon, and then cold and windy in the evening. I always tell tourists to take their sunglasses and their jackets when they go out!

Rob Hey, Jenny!

Jenny Oh, hi, Rob. Is that coffee for me?

Rob Yes. A double espresso.

Jenny Oh, wow, thanks. That's really nice of you.

Rob No problem. Do you have a meeting with Daniel?

Jenny Yes, another meeting. And you?

Rob I'm going to the office, too. I have an interview in twenty minutes.

Jenny Oh really? With who?

Rob A theater director.

Jenny Sounds interesting.

Rob What time is your meeting with Daniel?

Jenny At half past nine.

Rob Ugh!

Jenny Oh, no. Are you OK? I'm so sorry!

Rob I'm fine!

Jenny I'm really sorry. You can't wear that shirt to an interview!

Rob Don't worry, there's a clothes shop over there. I can buy a new one.

Jenny OK. I can help you choose one.

Jenny Oh, that's my phone. Sorry, I need to answer this. See you in there?

Rob OK.

(3.19))

Eddie So, Jenny, what do you think of London?

Jenny I love it, Eddie! It's so cool!

Eddie What about the people in the office?

Jenny They're really nice. And they're very polite!

Eddie What are you doing right now? You aren't in the office. I can hear traffic.

Jenny Right now? I am standing outside a men's clothing store.

Eddie You're what?

Jenny I'm waiting for Rob.

Eddie Who's Rob? Do you have a new friend already?

Jenny Don't be silly. He's just a guy from the office. He's buying a new shirt.

Eddie Wait a minute. So you're waiting for a guy named Rob outside a men's clothing store?

Jenny Stop it. I don't have time to explain it all now. Oh, here he is now. I have to go.

Eddie OK. Have fun.

Jenny Bye, Eddie. Love you.

Rob So, what do you think?

Jenny You cannot be serious!

Rob What's wrong? You don't like my new shirt?

Jenny No way! You can't wear that to an interview! Come on, let's go back into the store and change it.

Rob OK.

3.33))

Interviewer What's your favorite time of day?

Martin It depends. During the week it's seven in the evening, because that's when I get home from work and when I can relax. But on the weekend, my favorite time is breakfast time. I have a big breakfast, and I have time to read the papers and listen to the radio.

Interviewer What's your favorite day of the week?

Martin My favorite day of the week is Friday, because then I know the weekend is near.

Interviewer What's your favorite month?

Martin Probably May. It's when the weather starts to get warm and the evenings are long.

Interviewer What's your favorite season?

Martin Spring, because it means that winter is finally over. I love riding my bike, and spring is a great time for bike riding – not too hot and not too cold.

Interviewer What's your favorite holiday?

Martin Probably New Year's Eve, because you don't need to worry about buying presents or cooking a big lunch, and everybody's in a good mood.

... and finally on the news today the story of two soccer fans who missed the big match.

Last week, Chelsea played Arsenal at Chelsea's famous stadium, Stamford Bridge in west London. It was the match that soccer fans all over the world wanted to watch. Charles Spencer's daughter and a friend were among the lucky people with tickets. The girls were in Althorp, which is about 85 miles from London, and they decided to go by taxi. But when the taxi stopped in a small village, it was clear that something was wrong. They were in Stamford Bridge, but not at the Chelsea stadium. The driver had typed Stamford Bridge into his GPS. But unfortunately, Stamford Bridge is also a small village in the north of England – and that's where they were! Of course, they missed the match.

Interviewer When was your memorable night?

David Te puedo decir exactamente, fue el once de julio del dos mil diez. I can tell you exactly, it was July 11th, 2010.

Interviewer Why do you remember the date?

David Because it was the final of the World Cup, Spain against Holland.

Interviewer Where were you?

David Well, I'm a flight attendant and that day I was in Acapulco in Mexico.

Interviewer Who were you with?

David I was with three other Spanish flight attendants.

Interviewer Where did you go to watch the match?

David We didn't go out. We watched the match in the hotel restaurant.

Interviewer And what did you wear to watch the match?

David We wore Spanish soccer shirts that we bought in a store, and we also had red and yellow scarves.

Interviewer Tell me about the night. What did you do?

David Well, the match was on in the afternoon Mexican time. We went down to the hotel restaurant early to get a good seat. There was a big screen. The restaurant was full of Spanish tourists. There was a great atmosphere.

Interviewer And Spain won the match, of course.

David Yes. It wasn't a good match, but when Spain got their winning goal everybody shouted and jumped up. It was amazing! When the match finished we all went out. We wanted to celebrate. We went to another restaurant near the beach, and it was full of Spanish people. Everyone was really happy. We had a great party!

Interviewer What was the weather like? Do you remember?

David Yes, it was a warm night. About 20 degrees Celcius, I think.

Interviewer What time did you get back to your hotel?

David I can't remember exactly but very late, about three in the morning. Luckily, I had a free day the next day, so I didn't need to get up early.

Interviewer Why was this night so memorable?

David First, of course, because Spain won their first World Cup, but also because of the circumstances – we were very far away from Spain, thousands of kilometers away in another country, but we all felt very Spanish that night!

3.64))

Rob So, Jenny, we have a free morning. What do you want to do?

Jenny Well, you're the expert on London life!

What do you suggest?

Rob Well, we can go cycling.

Jenny I don't have a bike.

Rob We can rent bikes. It's easy.

Jenny That's cool.

Rob OK, great. So we can cycle through the parks, and you can see a bit of London. Oh, hang on. Uh, oh. It's Daniel. Daniel, hi!

Daniel Hi, Rob. You need to do an interview this morning, with an artist. He's at the Tate Modern.

Rob Can I do the interview on Monday?

Daniel Sorry, he can only do this morning.

Rob OK, send me the details.

Daniel Thank you very much, Rob.

Rob I'm sorry.

Jenny That's OK, I understand. Work is work!

Rob But I can meet you later, outside the Tate Modern. It's on the South Bank.

Jenny I can find it. I have a map, I can cycle there.

Rob Let's meet at twelve o'clock then.

Jenny Great.

3.68))

Rob Sorry about the weather.

Jenny Yeah... but what a view! It's a great bridge too.

Rob It's the Millennium Bridge. It's not for cars, only for people. It was the first new bridge over the Thames in 100 years.

Jenny You sound like a tour guide!

Rob Sorry... I interviewed the architect last year. So what would you like to visit?

Jenny What is there to see?

Rob Well, we could see the Tate Modern first as we're here, and then we could go to the Globe Theatre. Do you like Shakespeare?

Jenny Not really. I studied too much Shakespeare in college. It's Daniel. Sorry. Hi, Daniel.

Daniel Hi, Jennifer. How's your free day? Are you enjoying London?

Jenny Absolutely. It's fantastic.

Daniel Listen, I have some free time today. Would you like to meet for lunch?

Jenny That's really nice of you, Daniel, but I'm sorry, I can't. I'm really far away from the office right now.

Daniel That's OK. No problem. Maybe another time?

Jenny Definitely. Bye.

Rob What did he want? Anything important?

Jenny Not at all. Hey, let's go inside the Tate Modern now.

Rob Yes, of course. There's a great restaurant on the top floor. The view is fantastic. The Tate Modern was a power station until 1981. Did you know that?

Jenny I didn't. Do you know anything else about the Tate Modern?

Rob Thank you for asking. I know a lot about it actually.

Jenny Oh, great!

Detective Did you hear anything in your father's room?

Barbara No, I didn't hear anything.

Detective Miss Travers, did you have any problems with your father?

Barbara No, I didn't have any problems with him at all. My father was a wonderful man and a wonderful father. I'm sorry, Detective.

Detective Don't worry, Miss Travers. No more questions.

4.7))

Next, the detective questioned Gordon Smith.

Detective What did you do after dinner, Gordon?

Gordon I played cards with Barbara. Then she went to bed.

Detective Did you go to bed then?

Gordon Yes, that's right.

Claudia Yes, I was.

Detective Were you just his assistant?

Claudia What do you mean?

Detective Were you in love with Mr. Travers?

Claudia No, I wasn't.

Detective The truth please, Claudia.

Claudia Fine, Detective. Yes, I was in love with him, and he said he was in love with me. He said he wanted to leave his wife – Amanda – and marry me. I was stupid. I believed him. He used me, Detective! I was very angry with him.

Detective Did you kill him?

Claudia No, Detective, I loved Jeremy.

4.9))

Before dinner, Gordon met with Jeremy in the library.

Gordon Happy birthday, Jeremy.

Jeremy Ah, thanks, Gordon.

Gordon Listen, Jeremy, I want to talk to you about Barbara.

Jeremy Barbara? What's the problem?

Gordon It's not exactly a problem. I am in love with her, and I want to marry her.

Jeremy Marry Barbara? Marry my daughter? Are you crazy? Never! You don't love Barbara. You only want her money!

Gordon That's not true, Jeremy. I love her.

Jeremy Listen to me. If you marry Barbara, when I die all my money goes to Claudia.

Gordon To Claudia? To your assistant?

Jeremy Yes.

Gordon Is that your last word, Jeremy?

Jeremy Yes, it is.

Amanda Dinner everybody!

Reader At midnight, Gordon was in the living room. He finished his tea and went upstairs.

Jeremy Who is it? Gordon?

4.14))

Barbara Let's go upstairs. Follow me. Be careful. The ceiling is very low here.

Leo It's a very old house.

Barbara Yes, the house is three hundred years old. My family lived here for nearly eighty years. There are six bedrooms. This was my father's bedroom.

Kim Is there heat in the house?

Barbara Yes, there is. Why do you ask? Are you cold?

Kim Yes, it's very cold in here.

Leo That's because we're from California.

Barbara Let's go and see the other bedrooms.

Leo Yes, of course.

Leo Well, what do you think, Kim? I love it! Don't you?

Kim I'm not sure. There's something about the house I don't like.

Leo Kim, it's perfect for the kids. Think of the yard. And it's a real authentic country house. What do you say?

Kim I suppose so. If you're sure.

Leo I am sure! Mrs...uh, Barbara. We want it. We want to rent the house.

Barbara Excellent.

Leo When can we move in?

Barbara As soon as you like.

4.15))

Leo Hello.

Waiter Good evening, sir, madam. What can I get you?

Kim How about a coffee? I'm still cold.

Waiter Yes, madam. And you, sir?

Leo You know, I'm cold, too. I'll also have a coffee, thanks.

Waiter Here you are!

Leo Well, here's to our new house!

Kim Yes!

Waiter You're new around here, aren't you?

Leo Yes, that's right.

Kim We just rented the big house on Darwin Road.

Waiter Which house? The Travers family's house?

Leo Yes.

Waiter Oh.

Leo Is something wrong?

Waiter Who showed you the house?

Kim Barbara. The old lady who lived there before.

Waiter Ahh, Barbara. Old Mr. Travers's daughter. Some people thought that she was the one who did it. She never married, of course.

Kim The one who did what? What happened? Why didn't she marry?

Waiter Didn't she tell you?

Leo Tell us what?

Waiter About the murder.

Leo & Kim Murder??

Waiter Yes, Mr. Travers was murdered in that house in 1958... in his bed.

Kim Oh, how horrible!

Waiter The man who killed Mr. Travers was Barbara's lover. The family never lived there again. They tried to sell the house, but nobody wanted to buy it. Not after a murder. That's why that house is always rented.

Leo Kim.

Kim Yes.

Leo Are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Kim Yes – I don't want to sleep in a house where somebody was murdered. Come on. Let's go to a hotel.

Waiter Hey, your coffee! You didn't drink your coffee! Ah, well.

4.24))

I arrived at Gosforth Hall late in the evening. I don't believe in ghosts, but yes, I felt a little nervous. I checked in, and the front-desk clerk gave me the key and showed me to my room.

I left my things in the room and came downstairs. There weren't many other guests in the hotel. There were only three. I sat in the lounge and I talked to the manager, Sara Daniels, about her hotel. Then I had a drink and at 12 o'clock, I went upstairs to my room.

Room 11 was on the top floor. I opened the door and turned on the light.

It was a very big room, very old, and yes, it was a little spooky. There was an old TV on a table – but there wasn't a remote control. I turned on the TV.

There was a movie on. I was happy to see that it wasn't a horror movie. I decided to watch the movie, but I was tired after my long trip and after half an hour, I went to sleep.

4.25))

Stephen In the middle of the night, I suddenly woke up! I looked at my watch. It was two o'clock in the morning. The TV was off! But how? There was no remote control, and I didn't get up and turn it off. The light was on, but suddenly the light went off, too. Now I was scared! I couldn't see anything strange, but I could feel that there was somebody or something in the room. I got out of bed and turned on the light and TV again. Little by little I started to relax, and I went to sleep again. When I woke up, it was morning. I had breakfast and checked out. I left the hotel about ten o'clock.

Interviewer So the question is, did you see the ghost?

Stephen No, I didn't see the ghost, but I definitely felt something or somebody in the room when I woke up in the night.

Interviewer Were you frightened?

Stephen Yes, I was! Very frightened!

Interviewer Would you like to spend another night in the hotel?

Stephen Definitely, yes.

Interviewer Why?

Stephen Well, I'm sure there was something strange in that room. I can't explain the television and the light. I want to go back because I want to see the ghost.

4.32))

Host Good afternoon and welcome to today's edition of Get Ready! Cook! And a big round of applause for today's contestants, Jack and Liz. Hello, Jack. So, do you like cooking?

Jack I love it. I cook dinner every evening at home.

Host How about you, Liz?

Liz Yes, I'm the cook in my family, too. I cook every day of course, but what I really like is cooking for friends on the weekend.

Host OK, so you know the rules. In the bag there are six ingredients, just six ingredients. You have an hour to make three dishes, an appetizer, a main course, and a dessert. Apart from the ingredients in the bag, you can also use basic ingredients like pasta, rice, eggs, sugar, salt, pepper, and so on. OK? Are you ready? Let's open the bag. And today's ingredients are a chicken, some carrots, some onions, three oranges, some cream cheese, and some dark chocolate. OK, Jack and Liz. You have five minutes to decide what to make, and then it's Get ready! Cook!

4.33))

Host Liz and Jack, you have two more minutes, so I hope you're almost ready. OK. Time's up. Stop cooking now, please. OK, Jack. What did you make?

Jack For the appetizer, there's carrot and orange soup, for the main course I made chicken breasts filled with cream cheese, and for dessert I made pancakes with chocolate sauce.

Host That all looks delicious. And you, Liz?

Liz I made a carrot and onion salad with orange dressing. Then for the main course, I made pasta with creamy chicken sauce, and for dessert, chocolate and orange mousse.

Host It all looks good, too. But now, the moment of truth. Let's taste your dishes...

4.34))

Host OK, Jack. Let's try your soup. Mmm, that's delicious. It's a great combination, carrot and orange. Is there any onion in the soup?

Jack Yes, one onion.

Host It's very good, but next time maybe you could add a little cream, not much, just a little. OK, now the chicken. Mmm, that's nice. Not very original, but very tasty. And finally, the pancakes. They look beautiful... and they taste great. Now Liz, let's try your dishes. The salad first. Mmm, it's nice, but the taste of onion is very strong. How many onions did you use?

Liz Three.

Host I think maybe two are enough for this salad. OK, the pasta. Mmm, it's very good but it needs a little more salt and pepper. And finally, the mousse. That's a beautiful mousse, Liz.

Liz Thank you.

Host Mmm, and it tastes wonderful, absolutely delicious.

Well, congratulations to you both. I loved all your dishes – but only one of you can win – and today's winner is... Jack!

Host Question 1. What is the approximate population of Vietnam? Is it a 68 million, b 78 million, or c 88 million?

Contestant 1 I think it's c, 88 million.

Host c is the right answer! Question 2. How many calories are there in a Big Mac? Is it a 670, b 540, or c 305?

Contestant 2 I think it's a, 670.

Host Final answer?

Contestant 2 Final answer, 670.

Host I'm sorry, the right answer is b. A Big Mac has 540 calories. And Question 3. How far is it from New York City to Los Angeles? Is it a about 2,500 miles, b about 1,500 miles, or c about 3,100 miles?

Contestant 3 About 2,500 miles.

Host Are you sure?

Contestant 3 Yes, I'm sure.

Host a is the right answer!

4.45))

Host Good evening. Welcome to Quiz Night. Tonight's show comes from New York City. And our first contestant is Colleen from Miami. Hi, Colleen. Are you nervous?

Colleen Yes, a little.

Host Well, just try to relax. The rules are the same as always. I'm going to read you some sentences, and you have ten seconds to say if the sentence is true or false. If you get the first answer right, you win 500 dollars. Then for each correct answer you double your money, so if you get the second answer right, you win 1,000 dollars, and for the third correct answer you win 2,000 dollars. For eight correct answers you win 64,000 dollars. But if you get an answer wrong, you lose all the money. Remember you can also call a friend, so if you're not sure about one of the answers, you can call your friend to help you. Is that OK, Colleen?

Colleen Yes, OK.

4.46))

Host OK Colleen, first question for 500 dollars. The North Pole is colder than the South Pole. True or false?

Colleen The North Pole is colder than the South Pole. Uh, false.

Host Correct. The South Pole is much colder, because it's much higher than the North Pole. In the summer, the average temperature at the North Pole is 32 degrees Fahrenheit, but at the South Pole it's minus 15. Now, for 1,000 dollars, carrots are sweeter than tomatoes. True or false?

Colleen Uh, I think it's true.

Host Correct. It's true. Carrots are about five percent sugar, but tomatoes, even though they are a fruit and not a vegetable, don't have any sugar at all. OK, for 2,000 dollars, a proton is heavier than an electron.

Colleen I think it's true.

Host Correct. A proton is more than 1,800 times heavier than an electron. Next, for 4,000 dollars, The White House is bigger than Buckingham Palace. True or false?

Colleen The White House is bigger than Buckingham Palace. Uh, false.

Host Correct. Buckingham Palace has 775 rooms, but the White House has only 132 rooms. Next, for 8,000 dollars, oranges are healthier than strawberries. True or false?

Colleen Uh, true. No, uh, false.

Host Do you want to call a friend?

Colleen No, I think it's false.

Host Correct. An orange has 70 milligrams of vitamin C, but a cup of strawberries, a normal serving, has 98. OK, for 16,000 dollars, female mosquitoes are more dangerous than male mosquitoes.

Colleen Uh, true.

Host Correct. Female mosquitoes are the ones that bite. Male mosquitoes don't bite. OK, Colleen, for 32,000 dollars, in judo a green belt is better than a blue belt. True or false?

Colleen Uh, I'm sure that's false. My brother does judo. False.

Host Correct. The order of belts in the lower stages of judo is white for a beginner, then yellow, orange, green, blue, brown, and black. And finally, the last question. Be very careful, Colleen. If you get it right, you win 64,000 dollars, but if you get it wrong, you get nothing. Are you ready?

Colleen Yes, ready.

Host OK, for 64,000 dollars, hepatitis A is worse than hepatitis B. True or false?

Colleen Uh... uh...

Host Quickly, Colleen, your time is almost up.

Colleen I want to call a friend.

Host OK, Colleen. So, who do you want to call?

Colleen Kevin.

Host Is he your friend?

Colleen Yes.

Host OK then. Hello, Kevin?

Kevin Yes.

Host I'm calling from Quiz Night. Colleen needs some help. You have 30 seconds, Kevin. Here she is.

Colleen Hi Kevin.

Kevin Hi Colleen.

Colleen Listen, Kevin. It's the last question.

Hepatitis A is worse than hepatitis B. True or false?

Kevin Uh, I think it's true. Hepatitis A, yes, that's the serious one.

Colleen Are you sure?

Kevin Yes, definitely!

Host Time's up. OK Colleen, true or false?

Colleen True.

Host Final answer?

Colleen Final answer. True.

Host I'm sorry, Colleen, it's false. Hepatitis B is much more serious. You can die from it. You had 32,000 dollars, but now you go home with nothing.

Colleen Ooh, Kevin. You wait until I see him...

Host On today's travel program, Alan Marks is going to tell us about CouchSurfing, a new way of traveling. Alan, what exactly is CouchSurfing?

Alan Well, CouchSurfing is an exciting and cheap way of traveling and seeing new places. It's a very simple idea. When you visit another city, you stay in somebody's apartment or house. That person, the host, gives you a room and a bed, and if he or she doesn't have a bed, then you can sleep on their couch, or sofa.

5.9))

Host Do you have to pay for the bed?

Alan No, you don't. It's completely free.

CouchSurfers usually take a small present for the host or maybe they can help with the housework or make a meal. But you never pay any money.

Host How do you find these people?

Alan Well, there is a website called CouchSurfing.org. First, you go there and create a profile. Then you search for the city you want to visit, and you look for people there who are offering a bed. When you find somebody, you send them an email and then you can agree on the day or days that you want to stay. The website is free.

Host And do you have to offer a bed in your house?

Alan No, not if you don't want to. You can just be a guest or you can be a host and offer a room in your house, or you can do both things. It's up to you.

Host Is CouchSurfing safe?

Alan Yes, it is. You have a lot of information on the website about the person you are going to stay with. Every time a person stays with a host, they write a report, either positive or negative, and you can read all these reports. Also, you can email the person before you go and ask any questions you want.

Host Does the host usually show you his or her city?

Alan Well, it depends on the person. Some hosts take their guests to see some of the sights, but others don't. It depends when you visit, too. Some hosts take their guests out on the weekends, but are too busy during the week. But hosts usually recommend things to do, so you often see things that tourists don't usually see.

Host And can I CouchSurf all over the world?

Alan Of course. In fact, you can visit 230 countries and more than 70,000 cities.

Part 2

"Well I have a problem with my friend. We argue all the time. I'm not sure that he loves me. I want to know if we're going to stay together." "Please choose five cards, but don't look at them." Jane took five cards. The fortune-teller put them on the table face down. He turned over the first card. "Ah, this is a good card. This means you're going to be very lucky." "But am I going to stay with my boyfriend?" Jane asked. "Maybe," said the fortune-teller. "We need to look at the other cards first."

5.17))

Part 4

The fortune-teller turned over a card with two rings. "Now I can see everything clearly. You are going to leave your friend and go away with the other man, with Jim...to another country. And very soon you're going to get married." "Married? To Jim? But am I going to be happy with him?" "You're going to be very happy together. I'm sure of it." Jane looked at her watch. "Oh, no, look at the time. I'm going to be late for work." She stood up, left a $50 bill on the table, and ran out of the room.

5.30))

One of the first things I noticed in Valencia is that people eat out a lot. They spend a lot of time in cafes. You find people having breakfast or tea, not just lunch and dinner. People who work go out to have coffee, they don't have it in their office. In restaurants, one thing that really surprised me was that when people go out in big groups, the men all sit at one end of the table and the women at the other.

Another thing I notice, maybe because I'm a woman myself, is what Spanish women are like, or Valencian women maybe. Of course, I'm a foreigner, but I find that the women here talk very fast and very loudly, much more than the men. Women dress very well, especially older women, and they always look immaculate!

Finally, there's a myth that the Spanish don't work hard, but I don't think it's true, it's just that they work different hours. People have a long lunch break, but they leave work very late.

5.36))

Interviewer Today, most people spend a lot of time every day online, but do men and women use the Internet in the same way?

Expert Research shows that in general, they use the Internet in different ways. For example, men and women both use the Internet to send emails, but men send more work emails, while women send more personal emails to friends and family.

Interviewer What about online shopping?

Expert As you can imagine, women do more Internet shopping than men. They often use online stores to buy things for the house, clothes, toys, and so on. Men, on the other hand, prefer buying things on auction sites like eBay.

Interviewer What other sites are more popular with men?

Expert News sites are more popular with men than with women. Men also like visiting sports sites where they can find out, for example, game scores. In general, men use the Internet a lot for fun. They download music and play games much more than women do.

Interviewer What do women do more than men?

Expert Well, women often use the Internet to get information about health and medicine. And they are also more interested in websites that give them advice, for example, websites that give advice about how to be good parents, or diet websites that help them to lose weight. They also use the Internet for directions much more than men. They use websites like Google maps when they need to go somewhere new. And they use social networks like Facebook more than men do.

Interviewer Are there some things that both men and women do?

Expert Yes, they both use the Internet to book tickets for trains and planes, and to book hotels. They also both use online banking, for example, to pay bills or make transfers.

- 1 Yes, I have. I don't usually see movies more than once or twice, but I've probably seen It's a Wonderful Life, the old Frank Capra movie, at least six or seven times because it's on TV every Christmas. It's usually on just after lunch on Christmas Day, which is when I'm full and a little sleepy, and I want to sit on the sofa and watch a movie. Actually, I think it's a great movie.

- 2 Yes, The Empire Strikes Back, the second Star Wars movie, well, the fifth episode in the series. I've seen it about twenty times probably. It's my favorite movie of all time, and when I meet a girl, I always watch it with her. It's a kind of test. If she doesn't like the movie, then I think that our relationship isn't going to work.

- 3 Yes, I have. Flashdance. I've seen it, oh, more than a hundred times. I absolutely love it. I love the music, and the movie just makes me feel good. Whenever I feel depressed I think, OK, I'm going to watch Flashdance. It always makes me feel better. I've bought the DVD three times because after you've played a DVD a lot, it doesn't work well.

Jess So, where are you going to take me for my birthday?

Matt I want to take you somewhere really nice. Have you been to The Peking Duck on 24th Street?

Jess On 24th Street. Yes, I have.

Matt Oh, no! When did you go there?

Jess Last month. I went with some people from work.

Matt OK. Somewhere else. Have you ever eaten at Appetito on 2nd Avenue? They make delicious pasta.

Jess I know. I've been there twice. But we could go there. I love Italian food.

Matt No, listen. Why don't we go back to Luigi's? We had an amazing meal last time. Do you remember? The Italian waiter sang for you. It was so romantic!

Jess No, I don't remember.

Matt You don't?

Jess No, I don't remember because it wasn't me. I've never been to Luigi's.

Matt Oh. My bad memory again.

Jess So, who did you go there with? With your ex-friend?

Matt No, no, I went there with...my sister. Yes, with my sister.

Jess Your sister, huh? Let's forget it. I don't think I want to go out on my birthday.

2 We often use the present perfect with ever (= at any time in your life) and never (= at no time in your life).

3 We also use the present perfect to talk about something that has recently happened.

- We often use the present perfect to ask about or tell somebody about a past action for the first time. We don't ask / say when the action happened: Have you been to Luigi's? I've been to New York twice.
- We then use the simple past to ask / talk about specific past details: When did you go there? I went to visit my sister.
- We use the simple past NOT the present perfect with when and past time expressions, e.g., yesterday, last week: When did you see it? NOT When have you seen it? I saw it last week. NOT I've seen it last week.

been or gone?

I've been to Brazil.

(5. 53))

My sister's gone to Brazil to study Portuguese.

- Been to* and gone to have different meanings. Been is the past participle of be, and gone is the past participle of go.
- In the present perfect, we use been to (NOT gone to or been in) to say that somebody has visited a place. I've been to the US three times. Have you been to the new Vietnamese restaurant on George Street?
- We use gone to when somebody goes to a place and is still there: My parents have gone to the US for their vacation. They don't come back until Saturday.
